AXMINSTER Town to benefit from regeneration scheme

AXMINSTER is next in line to reap the regeneration success enjoyed by Seaton and Exmouth, according to East Devon Conservatives.

In a statement headlined "Putting the zing into revitalizing Axminster!" the Conservative Group in control of East Devon District Council (EDDC) said it is pressing ahead with a Regeneration Programme Board (RPB) for Axminster.

Apart from EDDC members, RPBs include delegates from county and town councils, local groups, and representatives from business interests.

From the editor's chair Former mayor: 'I've had enough!'

AS predicted in last week's Pulman's View, Seaton Town Council has been hit by yet another big-name resignation.

Former mayor Tony Woodman threw in the towel last week, frustrated by a number of issues, claiming the town is being split into two by the obsession with the regeneration initiatives, especially the recently opened Jurassic centre.

Mr Woodman, labelled by this column as "a rebel councillor" before he became mayor, much to his amusement, was never a supporter of Seaton Jurassic.

A trader at the time, he maintained the £4 million project being sited on The Underfleet would be of no benefit to the town centre because visitors would not walk into the shopping area.

He now claims there is proof of this, despite the apparent success of the footfall with many thousands having passed through its doors.

After announcing that he would not be seeking a second year as mayor, as is the norm, Mr Woodman told me he felt slightly embarrassed at the centre's opening ceremony, although he conceded it was a great day for Seaton with Princess Anne in attendance.

In announcing his resignation from the council, Mr Woodman told our reporter: "You can only bang your head against a wall so many times!"

He is also upset over the resignation of muchadmired town clerk Chris Drake, who has accepted a position with another authority.

Although Mr Drake is remaining tight lipped over why he has decided to move on, Mr Woodman says the town clerk had no choice as he was treated badly by a number of councillors. He says this was a major reason why he decided not to remain as the council chairman for a second year.

After getting on an even keel following a number of years in which Seaton council seemed to lurch from one controversy to another, it's unfortunate that once again the town should find itself in this position.

Clearly, new mayor Marcus Hartnell has a difficult few weeks ahead of him.

■ THIS weekend, in town and village throughout Pulman's Country, the people of East Devon and South Somerset will be raising a glass or two to Her Majesty The Queen on the occasion of her 90th birthday.

Numerous events have been organised throughout the area to celebrate this wonderful achievement.

Even those who are not rabid royalists will concede, I am sure, that our longest reigning monarch deserves a tipple or two herself.

Many congratulations, Ma'am!

SEATON Councillor resigns over 'brick wall'

FORMER Seaton Mayor Tony Woodman has resigned from the town council, saying he got a sore head from banging it against a brick wall.

He announced his shock resignation on Thursday, June 2nd, claiming some town councillors are "obsessed" with Seaton Jurassic and that the on-going regeneration is splitting the town into two.

He has now left the town council altogether, and told Pulman's View: "The so-called regeneration is creating an old Seaton in the town centre and a new Seaton at the Underfleet."

Seaton mayor Marcus Hartnell confirmed the resignation, but did not comment as such.

ILMINSTER Plans to strengthen Fairtrade concept

ILMINSTER Fairtrade Group has revealed a number of initiatives to strengthen the concept in and around the town.

The announcement was made during the group's annual meeting and open evening.

Plans to install five Fairtrade Town signs on the entrance roads to the town were unveiled, along with proposals to lead an ambitious expansion of the local Fairtrade movement to surrounding towns and villages across South Somerset.

OTTERY ST MARY Slade Farm homes appeal denied

AN application for 52 homes at Slade Farm has had its appeal turned down, much to the delight of local residents and the town council.

Blue Cedar Homes' development has been one of the most divisive applications over recent years with the Ottery public packing town and district planning meetings to voice their disapproval of the plans.

Cllr Roger Giles praised the decision and the town's people for their hard work.

"Many people will be very pleased, and also relieved, at the decision. I would like to offer my congratulations and thanks to the many local people who took the time to oppose this damaging planning application."

CHARD Schoolboy hailed a hero after finding missing man

A LOCAL schoolboy is being hailed a hero after finding missing Chard man Vasco Manuel Macedo.

Police announced on the night of Thursday, June 2nd that Vasco, 38, who had been missing for a week, had been found safe and well.

It has since emerged that seven-year-old Connor MacDonald found Vasco - who has learning difficulties - sleeping rough in a hide-away in a hedge area of Stringfellow Park.

The police's concerns were heightened when they said that, although Vasco was 38, the investigation was more akin to that of a "missing child" because he had the mind of a 13-year-old, could not speak English and would be very afraid.

COLYTON Colyton 'brighter' with new banners

COLYTON has been brightened up with a display of heraldic banners which depict the ancient town's rich history.

The display is an initiative of the Promote Colyton group, which last year staged the successful Monmouth Rebellion day.

The banners were all hand-painted by volunteers, with fabric donated by Tish Wells of Needlesharp and brackets by Mike Rowland Wheelwright & Coachbuilders.

The colourful banners were revealed last week and will remain on display around the town all summer.

SIDMOUTH Conservation group objects to Knowle development plans

CONSERVATION group SAVE Britain's Heritage has submitted its objection to PegasusLife's plan for 115 apartments at the Knowle site in Sidmouth, saying the loss of the building and surrounding area is a 'devastating blow to the history and character of Sidmouth.'

The national organisation, which has been described as the most influential conservation group to have been established in the last 100 years, has written to East Devon District Council's planning department objecting to the plan to demolish the 19th century council offices and building a new housing complex on the site.

The letter from SAVE reads: "Despite declining to list The Knowle in 2012, [government body] Historic England acknowledged that both the house and the park are of 'clear local interest' and are 'evidently highly valued by the local community.'"

Meanwhile the Save Our Sidmouth campaign group has formally submitted their views to EDDC over the planning application for the Knowle site. SOS laid out their objection in ten points including appearance, changes from the Local Plan and parking.

HONITON Business move makes way for starter homes

HONITON has been chosen for a national pilot scheme to build high quality starter homes available for local residents.

Initial suggestions being put forward by the Homes and Communities Agency (HCA) include around 30 two-bedroom starter homes with gardens and car parking at the 1.6-acre town centre site in Honiton. The scheme has only been possible after local firm Halse of Honiton announced they were relocating to purpose-built premises at Daisy Mount, near Exeter.

The Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Caroline Kolek, said: "Low cost housing is desperately needed for first time buyers in Honiton. I fully support the development of brownfield sites."

The Wurzels among those to pay tribute to Muhammad Ali

WEST country music legends The Wurzels have paid tribute to boxing great Muhammad Ali, who died late on Friday, June 3rd aged 74.

Tributes have been pouring in from around the globe following the news of Muhammad Ali's death - with The Wurzels possibly being among the more obscure of those wishing to pass on their condolences to the family of the man dubbed "The Greatest".

The Wurzels - famous for songs such as "I Am a Cider Drinker" and "Corn-bine Harvester" - met Muhammad Ali during a charity testimonial fundraising event for Welsh former British heavyweight champion Joe Erskine, back in the late 1970s in London.

The line-up of acts performing at the event included Lulu, Johnny Rotten and the West's very own scrumpy and western band The Wurzels.

Tommy Banner later said the photo with Muhammad Ali was taken by their manager at the time, John Miles, and while The Wurzels posed for the photo the boxer got "distracted by a gorgeous female" and is seen looking to the side.

The Wurzels were saddened like the rest of the world by news of Muhammed Ali's death and posted the photo on their Facebook page along with the words: "Legend gets overused these days, but this man truly earned the title. RIP Muhammad Ali."

■ THE GREATEST: Muhammad Ali with Pete Budd, Tony Bayliss and Tommy Banner of The Wurzels

Muhammad Ali was admitted to hospital on Thursday having suffered from a respiratory illness complicated by Parkinson's disease, which he had been battling for 30 years.

He was born Cassius Marcellus Clay and shot to fame when he won light-heavyweight gold at the 1960 Rome Olympics.

He won three world titles and became the first boxer to capture a world heavyweight title on three separate occasions.

He retired in 1981 having won 56 of his 61 fights.

Mayor praises youth football club

ILMINSTER Town Youth Football Club has been praised for helping to teach young people important life skills.

The new Mayor of Ilminster, Councillor Val Keitch, was the special guest at the club's annual celebration of achievement, which was held on Sunday, May 22nd at Swanmead School.

"I am so pleased to see so many youngsters from the Ilminster area involved in football," she said.

"I want to pay tribute to everyone involved in the running of the club as they do the town proud." The mayor, who is an avid football fan herself, said she was always pleased to support youth team sports, as being part of a team provided young people with life skills.

Outgoing club chairman Jamie Lee said: "As the popularity of the club increases the pressure on managers, coaches and the committee increase so we are always on the lookout for more volunteers. "Sadly and with a heavy heart I will be stepping down as chairman of the youth football club this year purely due to increased work commitments, but I will be staying on as a coach and a committee member."

There was standing room only in the main school hall for the awards where players from the Minis, Under-7s, Under-8s, Under-9s, Under-11s, Under-12s Girls, Under-12s Giants, Under-12s Gladiators, Under-14s Tigers, Under-14s Girls, Under-15s,

Under-16s and Under-16s Girls were presented with certificates and a number of individual accolades.

The annual Mark Faulkner Award - made in memory of a former Under-10s team manager who died in June 2007 just 11 months after being diagnosed with skin cancer - was presented to Steven Paul, manager of the Ilminster Youth's Under-12 Girls team.

The award is picked each year by Mel Faulkner and presented to a team who has shown an outstanding achievement in football for attitude, ability and determination.

The annual Chairman's Award was presented to Julie Key and Kelly James.

During the awards ceremony there were also some presentations made to three players - Danielle Bristow, Dane Allen and Liam Timson - who have started out on learning to become referees.

Chamber sheds light on key issues to help business people make up their minds before EU referendum

BUSINESS people who have not yet made up their minds on which way to vote in the EU referendum are being invited to view a series of briefing papers covering the key business issues that may be affected by the outcome of the vote.

The ten briefing papers, compiled by the British Chambers of Commerce, are now available on the Somerset Chamber's website.

They comprise responses from the Vote Leave and Britain Stronger In Europe campaigns to the main topics of concern for Chamber of Commerce members up and down the country.

These include trade prospects with EU and non-EU states; business regulation; business taxation; labour, skills and migration; regional development funding; and more.

The full, unabridged responses from the official 'Leave' and 'Remain' campaigns can also be downloaded from the Somerset Chamber website, for those seeking a greater depth of information.

Dale Edwards, chief executive of the Somerset Chamber of Commerce, said: "The results of our recent member survey on the EU referendum highlighted a need for clarity on both sides of the debate.

"The lack of fact-based evidence, free of political bias, was making it difficult for people to make objective decisions – not only regarding which way to vote, but also strategic and investment decisions within their businesses.

"Thanks to our accreditation to the British Chambers of Commerce, we are pleased to now be able to shed some light on the key issues from a business perspective, and are hopeful that this will be of use to business people in the area."

Along with the British Chambers of Commerce, the Somerset Chamber has stated that it will maintain a neutral position on the issue of the EU referendum.

New legislation bans 'legal highs'

NEW legislation has been introduced across the country which has brought an end to so-called legal highs.

The Psychoactive Substances Act 2016 has come into force and under the legislation it is an offence to produce, supply, offer to supply, possess with intent to supply, possess in a prison, import or export psychoactive substances.

A psychoactive substance is defined in the new law as a drug which is capable of affecting a person's mental functioning or emotional state, but is not currently controlled as a class A, B or C drug.

Psychoactive substances are any substances intended for human consumption excluding legitimate ones such as food, alcohol, tobacco, nicotine, caffeine and medical products.

The blanket ban on psychoactive substances is designed to get around the issue of suppliers continually offering new drugs which vary slightly in their chemical makeup to replace those already banned under the Misuse of Drugs Act, which is what has been happening over recent years.

Anyone caught breaking the law could be given a maximum prison sentence of up to seven years.

Avon and Somerset Police's drug strategy manager, Paul Blunt, said: "Psychoactive Substances are extremely dangerous and since their emergence have been linked with numerous incidents where people have been admitted to hospital, suffered long-term harm and even died.

"Anyone taking a psychoactive substance is playing Russian roulette with their health as many of these products have never been tested on humans.

"We are committed to reducing the harm caused by all drugs and in recent years we have been working hard to tackle the issue of so-called legal highs, using anti-social behaviour legislation to close down shops selling them.

"The Psychoactive Substances Act now makes it much simpler to shut down these so-called headshops while it also gives police the power to shut down websites trading in these drugs.

"The Act, which we will enforce in a practical and proportionate way, also allows officers to proactively stop and search people when they have reasonable grounds to suspect that a person has committed, or is likely to commit, an offence linked to the Act.

"However, legislation is only one way in which we confront psychoactive substances and other drugs and we will continue to work with our partners in local authorities and trading standards on prevention and education measures."

Residents donate special oak tree to Hinton's Jubilee Wood

HINTON St George residents Caroline van den Berg and David Adams have donated a special oak tree to Jubilee Wood.

The wood was created on a three-acre site which was donated to the village of Hinton St George in 2012 to commemorate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

It is a newly-planted wood with more than 3,000 trees and shrubs and a community orchard with more than 200 apple trees.

Oak Apple Day, which fell this year on May 29th, used to be a public holiday created to celebrate the restoration of King Charles II in 1660 and, although it ceased to be a public holiday in the nineteenth century, it is still celebrated in many parts of England.

For the past two years Oak Apple Day has been marked by a day of festivities in Jubilee Wood on the late May Bank Holiday. Inspired by these celebrations, Caroline and David donated the tree.

Don Morecombe of Hinton St George Jubilee Woods Committee said: "This tree is a direct descendant of the famous Boscobel House Royal Oak in which the future King Charles II hid after the battle of Worcester in 1651.

"It has been carefully planted in the middle of Jubilee Wood and will form the centre piece for all future celebrations of Oak Apple Day."

A special ceremony took place in the wood on Oak Apple Day this year to honour the new Royal Oak.

Caroline presented the tree's certificate of authenticity (pictured above) to Jubilee Wood trustee Angela Lodge, watched by the wood's patron Jon Goddard-Watts, Hinton St George parish councillors and members of the Jubilee Wood Trust.

This was followed by a toast to the new Royal Oak, the wood and the orchard.

Humphries Kirk solicitors hold communications day at college

DORSET and Somerset solicitors firm Humphries Kirk, which has a branch in Crewkerne, organised a communications day at Kingston Maurward College.

This special event was organised for partners and staff to discuss the direction of the business and improve internal communications.

The senior management team presented the practice's latest news and newer team members were given the chance to meet all of the partners and fellow colleagues.

Having launched its busy summer schedule of community sponsorships, Humphries Kirk's communications day presented senior management with the perfect opportunity to discuss the firm's plans.

John Chittenden, managing partner at Humphries Kirk, said: "Our communications day was a great way of discussing what the firm has in the pipeline - we're sponsoring Dorset Art Weeks, Dorset Opera Festival and Dorchester Literary Festival this summer, to name just a few events.

"It's important we continue to grow and develop the firm in the right direction and one of the partners delivered a very moving presentation, which was indeed Life in All its Colours.

"The communications day gave us the chance to reinforce precisely what we stand for, which is to serve our clients and look after our staff."

Humphries Kirk provides legal expertise to private and commercial clients, with offices in Crewkerne, Dorchester, Wareham, Swanage, Poole, Parkstone, Bournemouth and London. The firm also has a consulting room in Wimborne.

Wadham hosts multi-skills festival

CREWKERNE and Ilminster Schools Partnership (CISP) has held its second annual Multi Skills Festival.

The successful sporting event took place at Wadham School in Crewkerne.

Aspokesperson for CISP said: "Six first schools attended, each bringing two teams of Year 1 and 2 pupils plus four Year 4 young leaders.

"The partnership works hard to bring pupils together on a regular basis to give exciting opportunities to children of all ages.

"The younger pupils had a wonderful time with their older counterparts doing a great job of running all the activities."

Local fire crews to hold rescue exercise at hospital

FIREFIGHTERS and hospital staff will join forces this evening as part of an exercise to test rescue and evacuation from a high-rise building during a fire.

Four crews from local fire stations will practise techniques for firefighting and search and rescue at height during the exercise, which will take place on the ninth floor of Yeovil Hospital. Hospital staff will test evacuation procedures for non-mobile patients in the event of a fire high up in the hospital.

The exercise will take place at 6.30pm today (Tuesday) in order to have minimum disruption on hospital services. It will last for around an hour and a half.

Watch manager Ian Balfour, who is organising the exercise for Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service, said: "We are very grateful to the hospital for allowing us to practise our procedures following the release of new operational guidance nationally.

"Fortunately we very rarely have fires in high-rise buildings and organisations such as the NHS have very stringent fire safety measures in place. But, we have to prepare for the worst and exercises in realistic situations are invaluable for us to plan for the real thing."

Paul Mears, chief executive of Yeovil Hospital, added: "Exercises like this are hugely important, so that we can be absolutely sure that our patients are safe in the event of a fire.

"Most of the activity will be centred around the hospital main reception and on the main staircase, but there will be clear signage alerting people that it is only a test.

"I'd like to thank patients and visitors in advance for their cooperation."

The exercise will be repeated on Tuesday, July 5th at the same time, with different personnel.

Church strawberry tea to celebrate Queen's birthday

The Church of the Good Shepherd in Furnham Road, Chard, has changed the date of its traditional strawberry cream tea.

It usually takes place in late June but this year it has been switched to Saturday, June 11th to celebrate the Queen's official 90th birthday.

The event will commence with a short open air service of thanksgiving for the life of Her Majesty at 1.30pm in the church grounds.

The strawberry tea will follow and continue until 4.30pm.

A church spokesperson said: "Don't be disappointed if you are one of our regular visitors to the now famous strawberry tea - just make a note and join us on June 11th for this very memorable event.

"If wet, as has happened on one previous occasion, everything will transfer into the church."

Tickets cost £5 for adults, £3.50 for under 12s and are free for under 5s, and are available from The Vicarage on 01460 419527.

Rotary Club welcomes Malaysian visitors on exchange programme

THE Rotary Club of Chard have been pleased to entertain five Malaysian visitors from the Rotary District 3310 as part of an exchange programme with the local District 1200.

Members were delighted to welcome Choo Chor Tek, the leader of the party, who was hosted by club president Robin Williams and his wife Christine; Ching Wei Chia and his wife Flora who stayed with Rotarian John Sully and his wife Sheila; and Captain Ong Kean Soon and his wife Kumutham, who were hosted by Rotarian Stanley Hopkins and his wife Sylvia.

The party visited Perry's Cider at Dowlish Wake and, after a light lunch, were taken to the Guildhall for a formal welcome by the Mayor of Chard, Councillor David Bulmer, and the town crier and macebearer.

The party were afterwards entertained to tea and in the evening the visitors were welcomed to a regular meeting of the Rotary Club.

On Wednesday the party were taken on a trip on the West Somerset Railway, which was much enjoyed although the heavy rain prevented the view of the Quantock Hills being appreciated.

In the evening, Mr and Mrs Hopkins hosted a dinner for the guests and their hosts.

On Thursday a trip was taken to the Wetlands Centre at North Curry followed by lunch at the Langport Arms and a visit to Muchelney Abbey. The day concluded with a social evening at the Thorncombe Club where skittles, darts and excellent food were much enjoyed.

On Friday morning the party were taken to the Yeovilton Air Museum and introduced to their new hosts from the Rotary Club of Westbury where they continued their visit.

A spokesperson said: "The Chard club much enjoyed entertaining our guests and have hopefully made lasting friendships."

■ STRONG MESSAGE: Councillor Amanda Broom and Judy Gray

Councillor offers support to dog safety campaign

FOLLOWING a successful campaign last year, Chard resident Judy Gray has enlisted the support of district councillor Amanda Broom in raising awareness of dogs being left in hot cars.

This year, with the full support of South Somerset District Council, other district councils have also been asked to support as the message is spread further afield.

In total, more than 400 posters have been delivered to six councils, two main superstores as well as stores in Chard.

Residents in Chard will be reminded of the dangers of leaving their dogs inside parked cars by posters in local shops, and also with signs present in district car parks.

Councillor Broom said: "Any additional support we can give to the national RSPCA campaign can only be positive – the more people who are aware of the risks, the more people who will leave their dogs at home and look out for dogs trapped in cars.

"It is traumatising to see any dog suffering in this way, and most people do not realise how quickly heatstroke can take hold".

Judy added: "The RSPCA website has more information, but even when it doesn't feel warm, cars heat up as hot as ovens. Twenty-two degrees outside can get as high as 47 degrees inside a car, in less than an hour.

"Having contacted district, borough and unitary councils I am delighted at the heart-warming responses I have received – this has spurred me on to continue raising awareness across the country."

Young performers follow the yellow brick road to success

THE future of the Broadway Amateur Theatrical Society (BATS) is in safe hands thanks to the hugely talented members of its youth section.

The youth group of BATS put on three outstanding performances of "The Wonderful Wizard of Oz" at Broadway Village Hall.

The production was a first-time for Lisa Souster as director and she was thrilled with the show's success.

"What a great experience I have had directing a show for the first time," she said.

"The Wizard of Oz has always been my favourite childhood musical and I now have been able to bring it to life on stage.

"We have an amazing junior cast – whom I have been extremely proud of – and have enjoyed every minute working with."

While Lisa said she enjoyed working with the young cast, it looked as if the young cast aged from five to 14 years loved every minute being on stage.

Jess Withers took the lead role of Dorothy and was ably supported by George Souster as The Scarecrow, Jack Souster as Tin Man and Tiegian Owen as The Lion.

There were also good performances from Lorna Warren as the Good Witch Glinda, Heidi Warren as the Wicked Witch of the West and Beth Young as the Wizard of Oz.

THEATRE REVIEW

But there were a lot more stage performers along the Yellow Brick Road with the Munchkins and the citizens of the Emerald City and they all played their parts in making sure the show was a success.

The show was an abundance of brains, hearts and courage – just as Scarecrow, Tin Man and Lion would have wanted.

Cast: Dorothy – Jess Withers; The Scarecrow/Mr Crowe – George Souster; Tin Man/Mr Woodman – Jack Souster; The Lion/My Lyon – Tiegian Owen; Glinda/Emerald Citizen – Lorna Warren; Wicked Witch/Miz Switch – Heidi Warren; Aunt Em/Ozma – Lily Cumming; Uncle Henry/Emerald Citizen – Storm Lamb; Wizard of Oz – Beth Young; Mille Munchkin/Ozma – Lola Russell; Merry Munchkin/Emerald Citizen – Sienna Potter; Mooch Munchkin/Emerald Citizen – Ava Saunders; Munch Munchkin/Emerald Citizen, Olly Withers; Milton Munchkin/Emerald Citizen – Abigail Russell; Milburn Munchkin/Kadabra – Milly Tucker; Missy Munchkin/Ozma – Kelsey Potter; Moody Munchkin/Abra – Isla Gibson; Milford Munchkin/Oswald – Sophie Clements; Melinda Munchkin/Ozmary – Savannah Lamb; Minnie Munchkin/Ozark – Ella de

Warren-Penny; Mayor Munchkin/Boo – Holly Tucker; Ozra Pocus – Hatty Withers; Octas/Hocus – Poppy Lankester; Bippity/Emerald Citizen – Martha Keitch; Boppity/Emerald Citizen – Charlotte Saunders.

Most of the children were playing three or even four or more roles – but just their main characters are listed above.

Production: Director – Lisa Souster; musical director – Jackie Lankester; producer – Christine Trueman; sound – Graham Reeks; music – Julie Dunn; lighting – Nick Urch; stage management – Mark Savill, Viv Cumming; costumes – Jane Brown, Carol Crane; continuity – Carol Rice; dressers and make-up – Jo de Warren Penny and parents; publicity – Christine Trueman; prompt – Jackie Lankester; front of house – Maurice Baigent, Jo Warren and Roger Allen; refreshments – Mandy Wildman and friends; bar – Paul Trueman, Phil de Warren Penny, Ron James; raffle – Vera Pharoah, BATS members and friends.

Town crier wins Devon trophy

ILMINSTER town crier Andrew Fox brought back the silverware after winning a competition in Tiverton.

Andrew and his wife Julie travelled the short distance down to Devon to take part in Tiverton's own Town Crier Competition on Saturday, May 28th.

"When Julie and I are about in Ilminster in uniform, it's not uncommon for little ones to say 'oh look – a pirate,'" said Andrew.

He said that "Johnny Depp has a lot to answer for" in relation to the Hollywood actor's role as Captain Jack Sparrow in the hit "Pirates of the Caribbean" movies.

But Andrew quipped: "I did a bit of piracy of my own on Saturday when we went to Tiverton and stolen the Devonshire silverware and brought it back to Somerset!

"It was a good strong field with 17 town criers from all around the West Country taking part."

Overall results: 1st Andrew Fox, Ilminster; 2nd Roy Goodwin, Ilfracombe; 3rd David Turner, Tavistock.

Best dressed crier – Stephen Cunliffe, Dawlish; best dressed consort – Julie O'Shaughnessy, Milbrook.

New Lib Dem leader visits South Somerset as party 'fights back'

THE leader of the Liberal Democrats recently visited the Yeovil Constituency to meet with local members and supporters.

The Lib Dems took a severe bashing at the 2015 General Election and saw their 57 seats drop to just eight at Westminster and they became the fourth largest party behind Conservative, Labour and the SNP. South Somerset was one of the seats they lost with David Laws losing out to Conservative Marcus Fysh.

But new leader Tim Farron (pictured), who won the party's leadership election in July 2015 following the resignation of Nick Clegg, believes that the Lib Dems have started the fight-back in readiness for the nation to go to the polls in 2020.

Mr Farron visited the award-winning Rushywood Farm run by the Baker family of Haselbury Plucknett during his trip to South Somerset.

Mr Farron is now looking to start producing the goods himself as leader of the Lib Dems and get the party back to where it was before last year's heavy General Election defeat.

He has said that Somerset and the South West is a key area for the Lib Dems to concentrate their "Operation Fightback".

He said: "Things feel very positive. The local elections earlier this month were good and showed we had turned a corner from the hammering we took at the General Election.

"There is no question that if we don't recover here in the South West, then Conservative leadership will continue forever."

Mr Farron said the party had to start "motivating people" to sign up to the Lib Dem cause.

"We've got a poor Labour opposition, although I do like Jeremy Corbyn for what it's worth," he said.

"The Conservative government is taking the country and its people for granted."

Mr Farron said Lord Paddy Ashdown - himself a former Yeovil MP and leader of the Lib Dems - once told him that "you make your own luck."

"We need to roll our sleeves up and get on with it," he added.

"I was told as a child that we've got two ears and one gob and we should use them in that proportion - and that is what we have got to do. We've got to listen to the people."

Children enjoy football festival

■ ON Thursday, May 19th, 10 football teams from five local schools got together for a friendly football festival organised by Greenfylde First School at the recreation ground in Ilminster. The teams each played five matches and had a great time putting into practise their football skills. Plenty of spectators came to cheer on the children and everyone had a fantastic time despite the drizzly, cold weather, and the children were rewarded with plenty of goals being scored! Greenfylde would like to thank Bob Brunt for helping to organise the afternoon and to the other local schools for taking part.

Farm celebrates double award

A HINTON St George farmer is celebrating after winning gold and silver awards at this year's Taste of the West awards.

Dawn Quince said: "I am absolutely thrilled to receive these awards – getting gold for our salad leaves is amazing and makes all the hard work justified.

"I grow all the leaves without any herbicides or pesticides and they are a lovely mix of coloured and spotted lettuces, chinese greens, nasturtium leaves and edible flowers and quite a few other interesting leaves."

The business also received a silver award for its slow-grown, free range orchard guinea fowl that enjoy life underneath all the fruit trees on the farm.

Double celebration at church concert

NATURE provided a stunning firework display during the concert in the Minster Church Iminster, on Saturday, May 28th.

Taunton Deane Male Voice Choir and the Lions Club of Iminster & District joined forces in a two-fold celebration, for the 70th birthday of the choir and Iminster Lions' 40th anniversary year of service to the community.

Torrential rain, thunder and lightening added to the atmospheric condition of a magical performance both modern and traditional.

EU debate well attended

THERE was a good attendance and lively discussion on Friday, June 3rd in Chard when the arguments for and against the country remaining in the European Union were debated.

The debate was held at Holyrood Academy and former Liberal Democrat leader and Yeovil MP Paddy Ashdown, now Lord Ashdown, spoke in favour of the campaign supporting the remain campaign, while Councillor Nick Colbert of South Somerset District Council represented the move for the country to come out of EU.

The debate was hosted by St Mary's Church and was chaired by the Reverend Philip Wagstaff.

The referendum in the UK will be held on Thursday, June 23rd when people will get the chance on whether the country should stay in or come out of the European Union.

CONTINUING a tradition that began in 1231, Petherton Folk Fest provides a full day of free entertainment for adults and children. The event is a real treat for lovers of Folk dance – including Morris, clog and Appalachian – and music ranging from Folk and Blues to World and Acoustic. And, for children, this year's programme offers more entertainment than ever, from Punch & Judy and Maypole dancing to face painting and a music workshop.

At 10am on Saturday June 18th, several Morris 'sides' will parade into South Petherton's Market Square and launch the day's events with the traditional Ceremony of the Glove. Phil Bayliss, a committee member of the highly successful Petherton folk fair that ran for 19 years until 1997, will then perform the official opening and introduce Ian Baker, a member of Petherton Arts Trust, which owns and runs Petherton's renowned David Hall performing arts centre, who will be MC throughout the day.

There will be Morris dance demonstrations until 11am when the multi-instrumental Folk duo, Seth Bye & Katie Griffin, who blur the edges between Traditional music and contemporary styles, will open performances on the main stage in Market Square. Simultaneously, entertainment will begin in St Peter & St Paul's Church and its grounds, The David Hall, The Blake

Hall, the yard at the infants' school and the back garden of Burnworthy House residential home, off Hele Lane. The last performance of the day will be the local band - Bad Dog, No Biscuit - in The Brewer's Arms pub at 9pm.

At 12noon, visitors will be invited to join in the traditional Clipping of the Church, which has proved to be a popular feature of Petherton Folk Fest. Music will be provided by the trumpet player, Sampson Wang.

As well as 10 different Morris 'sides', at least 20 different bands and soloists are featured in this year's programme. They include the four-piece high-energy Celtic rock band, The Dambusters; Kitty Macfarlane, the 22-year-old Somerset-based singer/songwriter and guitarist who reached the semi-finals of the BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Awards in 2015; The Roaring Trowmen, four hearty men from Bristol who sing sea shanties and songs of the salty deep; local singer Hannah Cumming, who has a passion for Traditional English Folk songs as well as Acoustic and Popular music; Bristol-based vocalist and lyricist Phil King, who has twice won the title of Roots Artist of the Year; Mitchell & Vincent, the Somerset/Devon Folk duo who play a lively mix of Traditional tunes which they have arranged for fiddle and classical guitar, and the local acoustic guitarist and singer, Bob Gallie, who formed the group, Bad Dog, No Biscuit, 15 years ago.

Throughout the day, food and drink will be available from a number of stalls in and around Market Square as well as in St Peter & St Paul's church, and there will also be craft stalls and other attractions for visitors of all ages.

The main stage is being sponsored by Probiotics International Limited (Protexin), based at Lopen Head, and South Petherton Parish Council has also made a welcome donation to the event. A further donation will come from Waitrose in Crewkerne, who included Petherton Folk Fest in its green token scheme during April.

Full details of the day's events can be found on the website: www.pethertonfolkfest.org.uk

FORDE ABBEY FRUIT FARM

Fantastic fun entertainment

AFTER a long and fraught journey from Northamptonshire on June 4th, Matthew Bason immediately took his seat at the unique Beer Wurlitzer and won the hearts of the audience.

By using all the percussion instruments to their full potential, he produced some remarkable music and his programme included a wide variety of popular tunes. He also played the piano and accordion and, with his powerful voice, delighted the audience with two beautiful songs. As well as his all-round musical excellence, Matthew is a fun person and deserves huge recognition for his lively shows.

Matthew was classically trained on the piano and began to teach himself the organ aged 12. He performs all around the UK and has toured in the USA, Canada, Australia and Europe. He is a popular guest organist at Beer and commented "the organ gets better and better and it is a great credit to the team who maintain and improve it and also the audience who show their support".

The next show will be on Saturday, July 9th, with Trevor Bolshaw, internationally acclaimed concert and broadcasting organist and President of the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer. The shows are held at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ, starting at 2pm ending approx. 4.30pm. Admission is £7 on the door, children free, and includes interval refreshments. For further information phone 01297 24892 or visit www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk.

this June

MAD MAY is over and what a month we've had! The crew and volunteers at the Beehive have been brilliant, helping to ensure the smooth running of some stonkingly successful events. Wonderful to have packed houses singing along at Police Dog Hogan and laughing like drains at Henning Wehn and Twelfth Night!

Thanks to Honiton Festival who programmed some fabulously exciting and diverse music events this year.

Now we launch into June and the rest of our Shakespeare celebration.

On Saturday, June 11th at 7.30pm we have our Wonderful Will evening, a celebration of his life and works. A lovely informal evening with some favourite scenes, sonnets and soliloquies performed by Drama students from Honiton Community College and Stockland Primary school, some surprising guest performers, fab, funny scenes from Honiton community theatre co, beautiful live music and singing from Cole Stacey and Alex Jackson and all interspersed with fascinating facts about the life of the Bard!

Bristol Old Vic Theatre School are touring their production of A midsummer Night's Dream to the Beehive on Friday, June 17th. Having heard great things about this show, we are really looking forward to this.

As a part of our festival at 2pm on June 22nd, Pat Perryman is going to give a 40 minute talk about the origin of lacemaking in Shakespeare's time to the present day with examples and a display. The event is free of charge with donations to Allhallows Museum.

The Branagh Live production of Romeo and Juliet is being shown on Thursday, July 7th at 7.15pm and is our first live streaming event. The show stars Derek Jacobi, Meera Syal, Lily James & Richard Madden.

Amongst all of these Shakespearean treats we also have some fabulous films programmed for you throughout June.

The Man who knew infinity (12A) is on this Friday, June 10th, which stars Dev Patel as the Mathematical genius Srinivasa Ramanujan, along with Toby Jones, Stephen Fry and Jeremy Irons.

Then we have the very eagerly awaited Jungle Book (PG) at 3pm and 7.30pm on Saturday 18th June.

The Nostalgic Cinema film for this month is Kind hearts and coronets at 2pm on Thursday, June 23rd followed by free tea and biscuits in the café bar.

On Friday, June 24th at 7.30pm there is a Discover Arts showing of "Leonardo Da Vinci: The Genius In Milan" which explores his work as never seen before, telling the story of the artist's world and the treasures he left us.

Finally on Saturday, June 25th there are 11am and 3pm showings of "The Angry Birds Movie" (U) followed by "Florence Foster Jenkins" (PG) at 7.30pm that evening. Look forward to seeing you!

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE THIS JUNE

WITH THE countryside and gardens arguably looking at their best this month, now is a good time to celebrate the beauty of the natural world. Drawn from Nature, our first exhibition in June does just that, as it is a stunning a showcase by the patient and painstaking members of the South West Society of Botanical Artists. Featuring detailed content, skilful observation and closely observed colour, these images capture the fleeting beauty of flowers, leaves and fruit. Runs until Saturday, June 11th.

Ten talented West Country artists join forces for their exhibition, Another Dimension, which starts Monday, June 13th and runs until July 2nd. Not only will there be an intriguing variety of techniques and materials to enjoy – from textile collages to surrealist sculptures – but the breadth of the subject matter roams from Cornwall to Asia, and back to Somerset. Great fun!

On Friday, June 10th our jazz programme takes on an Italian flavour with a concert by Italy's top saxophonist, Tomasso Starace. Tomasso and his Quartet are highly regarded across Europe and their swinging and dynamic performance style have all the right ingredients to provide us with another memorable evening of modern music.

Darius Brubeck and his Quartet have played with Abigail Willis

to sold-out houses at festivals across the globe and we anticipate that their appearance at the Arts Centre on Friday, June 17th will continue the trend! Their irresistible '3 dimensional' programme includes original compositions, classic Brubeck hits and South African jazz but you will have to hurry if you want to get a ticket for this one!

We are delighted to be taking part in Ilminster's 1st Literary Festival, and are hosting three events that should be 'write' up your street, whatever your age. On Wednesday 1st, children's storyteller Tim Bates came to the Arts Centre to regale a young audience with tales about Animals with Attitude, while on Friday, June 3rd, we celebrated words, spoken and sung, with A Way with Words. Five West of England Writers joined us on Sunday, June 5th to talk about their work and inspiration, and answered questions.

Our three fabulous one day workshops this month are: Fabric Collage Book Covers on June 7th; Mixed Media Mosaics on June 10th; Crazy Patchwork on Friday, June 24th. Don't forget we are now inviting entries for the Ilminster Annual Open exhibition, which takes place in August. Entry forms are available online, or pick one up from the Arts Centre.

Eliza and Martin Carthy to headline Lyme Folk Weekend

Famous folk father and daughter duo to close out Sunday evening

ONCE AGAIN Lyme Folk Weekend is bringing the very best in British folk music and dancing to the town this September.

Specially reduced Early Bird weekend tickets are already on sale for the festival, now in its fourth year and firmly established as one of the highlights of the summer in Lyme Regis, and this time round will feature more than 40 acts at seven venues around the town. A limited number of Early Bird passes, which will allow entry to ALL the events at Lyme Folk Weekend, are available for just £45 until July 1st.

Making her first appearance at the festival is Eliza Carthy, arguably the biggest star on the British folk scene, who will be headlining the Sunday night finale show at the Marine Theatre along with her father, folk legend Martin Carthy. Martin and Eliza will be performing songs from their critically acclaimed album, The Moral of the Elephant, the first recording they have made as a duo.

Also gracing the Marine Theatre stage for Lyme Folk Weekend will be John Kirkpatrick, another legendary figure from British folk.

And if you're in the mood for joining in, John will be hosting singing and playing sessions in the Ship Inn, along with brilliant Lyme Folk patron Jim Causley.

As a bonus, John Kirkpatrick will also be appearing at a special show in a new pop-up venue in Langmoor Gardens, featuring music from the hit BBC programme Victorian Farm, for which he was musical director.

As usual there will be music, dancing, poetry and other entertainment all weekend, all around the town, including the amazing Steampunk Morris, the brilliant Ninebarrow and the hilarious Uke-Men League.

And don't forget entertainment all day on the seafront, live music each night at the Pilot Boat, open mic night at the Galley Cafe, the Saturday night barn dance in the new Town Mill Brewery beer tent, and much, much more.

■ Lyme Folk Weekend takes place from Friday, September 9th to Sunday, September 11th. For full details of all the acts on show and to grab your Early Bird weekend passes, visit www.lymefolk.com

Folk singer Causley to play the Whimble Victory Hall

SON OF Whimble Jim Causley celebrates over a decade (12 years actually!) as an acclaimed solo artist and performer with a brand new studio album Forgotten Kingdom, released by Hands On Music this year, and a supporting tour. The album is his first album of entirely self-penned material. Forgotten Kingdom is a broad collection of songs inspired by Causley's native Devon, mixing ancient history with the songwriter's own personal history and experience of the world. Themes range from the Saxon invasion of the area, the Celtic diaspora, to very personal explorations of love and geographical identity. This is certainly Causley's most musically ambitious work to date.

Remarkably, given the prominence of his native West County in his music, Forgotten Kingdom is the first occasion Jim has actually recorded an album in his home county of Devon! Working alongside award-winning co-producer Mark Tucker, this was a project Jim has long dreamt of creating. For this decenary celebration, Jim has invited some of his closest musical friends to join him as guests. Among them are long-time collaborators James Dumbelton, Nick Wyke & Becki Driscoll, all three members of Show of Hands on whose label (Hands On Music) the album is being released; contemporaries Seth Lakeman, Phillip Henry & Hannah Martin, Miranda Sykes & Rex Preston, Kathryn Roberts, Lukas Drinkwater and Jackie Oates.

During the past decade Causley has been nominated for no less than five BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards, won the Spiral Earth Singer of the Year award in 2014, presented his own folk music show on BBC Radio Devon and in 2015 he worked with BBC TV historian Dr Sam Willis to create the music for his show 'Highwaymen, Outlaws and Villains' and was invited to perform his song 'Pride of the Moor' on BBC TV's Countryfile - Dartmoor Special.

Alongside the new material from Forgotten Kingdom, Jim will revisit old songs from across his back catalogue (possibly even the odd wassail song!) giving a well-rounded and thoroughly entertaining night of shade and light.

Jim will be playing a full set at The Victory Hall, Whimble on Sunday, July 3rd 2016, tickets are £8 each and available from www.onawhimpromotions.co.uk or ring 07548 278 276. Doors open at 6.30 for a 7.30pm start, there is a licensed bar plus limited free parking.

5 TIPS FOR MAKING YOUR HOME MORE SELLABLE

1. IF your kitchen units have seen better days and

by Julia Gray, Press Association

you don't want to go to the expense and hassle of replacing them, give them an instant makeover by changing the doors and drawer fronts. This will transform the kitchen and needn't be too expensive - B&Q (www.diy.com), for example, has a big range of affordable unit doors and drawer fronts, many available in store. If the units aren't standard sizes or you want a more affordable option, simply paint the doors and drawer fronts to give them a new look, or glue thin MDF to the front to change the style and then paint them.

2. Cluttered kitchens aren't a selling point. If lack of worktop space is a problem, think about how you can make what you have go further. Use microwave brackets to get your microwave off the worktop, or fit nice wall shelves to declutter the worktop. In a small kitchen, a hinged wall-hung table will give you more work space and somewhere to eat. If your kitchen has highish ceilings and you're happy to change the wall units, tall ones provide extra storage. Failing that, stack attractive baskets or boxes on top of the existing wall units to make the most of the space, but don't store anything heavy up there.

3. Somewhere to shower is essential for most buyers and if your bathroom doesn't have a shower, it may be letting you down. There's an inexpensive answer - replace the bath taps with bath-shower mixer taps, which are bath taps with a shower hose and head. As long as your bath is suitable for showering and the water pressure is good, all you need is a bath screen or shower curtain, plus a riser rail on the wall to hold the shower head, and you have a shower that should add value and make your home more sellable.

4. Grubby tile grout makes kitchens and bathrooms look grotty. White grout is easily marked by cooking splashes, shampoo, shower gel and the like, but there is a quick and easily solution - steam-clean it. Use a steam cleaner and your grout should soon look like new. If the power of steam doesn't work, or work sufficiently, you can apply grout paint to re-whiten the grout. In the worse cases, consider raking out the stained grout and applying more, but this is a big job and you may chip the tiles in the process.

5. If you're selling your home, giving tired walls and woodwork a fresh coat or two of paint will make a big difference to any room but especially the kitchen and bathroom because they're key rooms. Make sure you use a scrubable paint so it stays looking good - special kitchen and bathroom emulsions are designed to withstand things like mould and steam and are available in all sorts of colours these days.

HOW-TO TIP

GROUTING tiles can be tricky because if you leave the excess grout on too long, it can be hard to remove, but if you wipe the tiles clean too soon after grouting, you can remove more than just the excess. Wait a few minutes after you've applied the grout and then wipe off the excess diagonally to minimise dislodging the grout from between the tiles. Use an abrasive sponge (make sure it's white if you're using pale grout) so you can scrub off the excess easily, and use the back of the sponge (the non-abrasive side) to smooth over the grout lines as you go, which saves having to go over them with a grout-finishing tool afterwards. Once dry, the tiles will be smeary from grouting - unless the grout is particularly hard, the easiest way to clean this off is by buffing with a dry cloth.

SOUTH WEST ROOFING

THE FLAT ROOFING SPECIALISTS

At South West Roofing we provide a high quality service, offering high performance Felt and GRP Fibreglass roofs with over 30 years of experience. Based in Crewkerne, and covering the Somerset, Dorset and Devon area, we aim to provide a friendly, efficient and competitively priced service, whether it be a small repair, or a large re-roofing job. Unlike other roofing companies, our focus is based solely on flat roofs, ranging from porches, garages and extensions, right the way up to schools and factory roofs. We enjoy a good working relationship with many local builders, who repeatedly use our services for their flat roof projects, and pride ourselves on the good name we have worked so hard to build up and maintain. We are more than happy to come out and advise you on your roof options, and give free estimates on any sized job. Our aim is to fix your flat roof issues to the highest standard, and largely rely on our customers to recommend us for future work.

To arrange a free estimate or for advise on your flat roof, please call us on: 01460 77789, or E.mail: lloydoble@hotmail.com

Ford launches sporty new ST-Line Fiesta and Focus models

FORD today announced a new ST-Line model range for Europe, featuring vehicles with sporty styling inspired by Ford Performance and offering a range of powerful and efficient EcoBoost petrol and TDCi diesel powertrains.

ST-Line launches with the Fiesta ST-Line – priced from £15,645 – and Focus ST-Line – priced from £20,595 – both available to order now.

Delivering bold exterior and interior designs inspired by Ford's acclaimed Fiesta ST and Focus ST performance models, the new Focus ST-Line and Fiesta ST-Line are designed for customers who aspire to the sporty image of Ford's ST models – but do not require the full performance delivered by optimised ST engines and chassis with sports technologies.

Both Focus ST-Line and Fiesta ST-Line are offered with a range of powerful engines including Ford's multi-award-winning 1.0-litre EcoBoost petrol engine; sport suspension and body styling; unique alloy wheel designs; and sport seats, sport steering wheel and alloy pedals for the interior.

"With our new ST-Line range even more customers can experience sporty style and driving dynamics inspired by our most exciting Ford Performance line-up ever, that includes models such as the Focus RS, new Fiesta ST200 and Ford GT supercar" said Roelant de Waard, vice president, Marketing, Sales & Service, Ford of Europe. "This year we expect to sell 40,000 performance cars in Europe, a 50 per cent increase compared with 2015, which in turn saw performance car sales rise by 61 per cent compared with 2014."

Sporty styling

Available in 3-door and 5-door bodystyles, the Fiesta ST-Line is a sporty new addition to the UK's best-selling car. The 5-door and estate Focus ST-Line models further enhance the appeal of the popular family car.

Draper's fourfer can't save Perrott – Welcome first win for Ilminster – Big defeat for Ilton

With the Cidermen

NATWEST T20 BLAST (SOUTH)

SOMERSET V ESSEX (Friday, June 3rd)

A MAN-OF-THE-MATCH performance from Chris Gayle on Friday evening was the highlight as Somerset put two object performances behind them to record their first win in this season's competition.

Somerset skipper Jim Allenby invited the visitors to bat first in front of a sell-out 7,000 crowd basking in the early June sunshine.

The Essex Eagles innings was a largely low-key affair against the Cidermen's attack who put in a good shift with Jamie Overton (2-45) and Lewis Gregory (2-25) the most successful while leg-spinner Max Waller only went for 17 off his three overs and picked up the wicket of dangerous Ravi Bopara for 8.

Ryan ten Doeschate top scored with 47 off 34 balls but the eventual total of 178 for 7 never looked to be enough...if the Cidermen's big guns fired.

Gayle and Allenby set out on the chase in circumspect fashion until Gayle went after David Masters in the fifth over with the giant West Indian clubbing three sixes and the beleaguered spinner going for 28.

He eventually fell at 75 misting a drive off Pakistani paceman Wahib Riaz to mid-off but his 49 off 23 balls had laid the foundation for victory.

Allenby was joined by Pete Trego and they added 47 before the Wizard of Weston fell for an impressive 34 off 20 with one maximum. One disappointment was the early dismissal of 39-year-old Sri Lankan legend Mahela Jayawardene who was bowled by Masters for six after playing one exquisite scoop over fine leg.

But any Eagles hopes of a late swoop to victory were ended when Lewis Gregory smacked two 4s and a six off the unfortunate Masters who finished with 1 for 54 off his four overs.

Allenby struck the winning runs as he and Gregory forged an unbroken fourth wicket stand of 52 and the Cidermen were home with 13 balls to spare.

Afterwards Gayle said on the club's website: "It's great to be back in Taunton and tonight's win was a great team effort."

◆ POPULAR: Mahela Jayawardene may have only made 6 on his home debut but he was soon a big hit with the Taunton crowd on Friday evening

"In the first two games we didn't get the results we wanted, so to actually get a win tonight was fantastic and hopefully we can use it to get some momentum going into the next game."

"It was difficult to say what par was but anything over 180 would give you a chance to win the game. Varying your bowlers was always going to be the key and we did that well."

"We got off to a good start as well and set it up for the middle order to come in and people could play their natural game and get a win."

"My form is a bit in patches at the moment and is a bit up and down, but when I get the chance to score a few like I did tonight and put the team in a winning position, that is what is more important."

"The crowd and the cheer was fantastic and I just love it here so it's great to be back here at Taunton. They made me feel so welcome and I want to smash sixes which is what I did today."

Scores – Essex 178-7 (R. ten Doeschate 47; L. Gregory 2-25) Somerset 181-3 (C. Gayle 49, J. Allenby 37*, L. Gregory 37*)

Royal London One-day Cup (50ov)

SOMERSET V GLOUCESTERSHIRE

(Sunday, June 5th)

TWICE in the space 10 days a last wicket stand has come to the aid of Somerset and clinched an incredible win when all seemed lost.

Skipper Jim Allenby once again called correctly and inserted the visitors in tricky batting conditions.

Craig Overton clean bowled the dangerous Michael Klinger for just six and the hosts were in control in the 16th over with Gloucestershire struggling on 94 for 4.

But a superb 16-boundary 100 from left-handed opener Chris Dent, allied to useful knocks from Benny Howell (35) and Jack Taylor (43) saw them to 260 which both camps later agreed was 20 to 30 below par.

The hosts were in early trouble at 15 for 2 Adam Hose and Pete Trego back in the hutch.

But opener Johan Myburgh was in fine form with a crucial 81 and had taken the score up to 166 for 3 in the 33rd over with help from James Hildreth (48) and Allenby (29).

From here it really should have been plain sailing. But a devastating collapse saw the Cidermen lose their fizz and were staring defeat at 198 for 9. However, Tim Groenewald, who along with Jack Leach, helped see Somerset over the line with a match-winning last wicket stand in the recent County Championship win over Surrey, strode out to join Jamie Overton with 63 needed off 49 balls.

And, after surviving a comical piece of fielding when jittery wicket keeper Gareth Roderick, made a complete hash of a clear run-out opportunity with 13 still required, the final pair carved their names in the annals of the Somerset legends with a magnificent stand punctuated by three 6s and six 4s with three balls remaining.

After the game Jamie Overton and Groenewald were jointing given the Man-of-the-Match award.

"We just kept it simple and took it run by run," said Groenewald.

"Timmy G was the senior partner, he had to calm me down a couple of times, but we knew we had enough balls to get the runs," said Jamie Overton.

Skipper Allenby was stunned to have seen his team pull off a great escape, he said: "It didn't look at all likely, but to be fair they (Groenewald and Overton) are really number 7's and 8s not 10's and 11's"

Scores: Gloucestershire 260 (C. Dent 100; R. van der Merwe 3-51) Somerset 263 for 9 (J. Myburgh 81, J. Hildreth 48, J. Overton 40*)

◆ NOT OUT: Essex batsman Ryan ten Doeschate just makes his ground despite the best efforts of Somerset 'keeper Ryan Davies.

karting news

Harris leads TKM

ROUND Four, and the mid way point of the Dunkswell Kart Racing Club's 2016 season, was held recently at the Mansell Raceway.

First up were the Cadets, and Charlie Knight was again untroubled with a lights to flag finish but the action was going on behind him as Ollie Tyler battled it out with Chris Simpson initially, before Ollie Makepeace cut through the field and was on Tyler's tail.

Tyler, worked hard and despite being pushed back to third place used his extensive experience to get past Makepeace on the final lap to follow Knight home with Makepeace trailing in behind in third.

In the Minimax class, It was Pryer who had an untroubled run whilst behind him, Adams and Connor Merrifield battled it out for second place. This allowed Shay Keough the chance to get in on the action but as Adams put some space between himself and this new fight, Merrifield used his experience to push Keough back into fourth.

There was some close racing amongst the top three in The Junior Max final as Wilson-Brown, Holden and Hepworth kept each other honest. On the penultimate lap, Holden went for a move getting ahead on Wilson-Brown but the end result was both Holden and Hepworth both coming off worse with Hepworth dropping to the back of the field whilst Holden received a 10 second penalty for a dislodged nosecone.

The net result saw Martial Radford promoted to second and Brad Horsnell to third.

The Senior Max final was the best race of the day as pole man Taylor Adams was quickly relegated to third as Dan Gould and Ash Reeves got ahead.

Reeves squeezed past Gould on lap 7 to take an emotional first seniors win. However, an administration error saw him denied the victory and gifting the win to Gould. Merrick Gigg was elevated to second and Adams, rounded off a good day with third.

In the TKM class, Matt Harris continued his dominance to take the win, whilst in the 177 class it was Ryan Edgecumbe who held off a determined Carl Adey to cement his position as the current class championship leader.

Last up were the Gearbox boys and Ross Allen was showing Ash Lewis a clean set of wheels as he made it four from four with Lewis managing to keep him honest crossing the line 2.2 seconds behind the team supported Allen.

Once again the club put on a well organised meeting and thanks must go to the MSA officials and the Marshal Team. It was also great to see an increase in the number of spectators turning out.

Diary date: The FP4 class will be racing at Dunkswell on Sunday, 26th.

Axmouth's Smith in British squad

EAST Devon runner Jake Smith is this week celebrating his selection to represent Great Britain at the European Mountain Running Championships in Italy next month writes Kevin Fahey.

The 18-year-old from Axmouth received the news over the weekend after making a stunning debut in the British trials race the previous weekend in the Lake District.

In his first mountain race Smith, who trains with Axe Valley Runners and is also a member of the N1 Tri Club covering East Devon, finished an amazing fourth in the under 20 men's race to secure his place in the team and his first GB vest.

"I just did not expect to do that well in the trials race," said Smith.

"When I got up there and saw the sort of runners I was up against, people who run all the time in the mountains and fells, I knew it was going to be very difficult.

"But I kept on moving through and on the last downhill I knew I had a chance of winning my first GB vest and I threw myself down it.

"It will be awesome to run for Great Britain for the first time especially in Olympics year."

It was Smith's coach Kirk Salmon who suggested Smith give the event a try and the family made a weekend of it to make the trip – which included a 10-slog through heavy traffic to reach the Lake District.

Smith found himself up against experienced fell runners and didn't even have specialist shoes instead relying on his normal road running shoes to carry him through.

"Wherever I run around here is hilly so that helps," added Smith, who won the Grizzly Cub race earlier this year.

"I also swim and cycle for triathlon and that has helped build up my leg muscles. It was still very tough but I really enjoyed it and I am just so please to have done so well and to win my first GB vest."

Salmon was full of praise for Smith and reckons he may have even created a little slice of Devon athletics history.

"I can't recall anyone from Devon before who has gone up to the fells and won a place in the British team for a major championships like this," said Salmon.

Big win for Axe Cliff seniors in derby clash

HONITON with John Pawley

THE Spring Bank Holiday competition started a very good week for Peter Clarke.

Firstly, he partnered his wife Heather to win the Treble Six competition. This is an annual mixed Stableford challenge where the men play off the yellow tees, and the ladies off the reds.

The first six holes are played as a better ball, with 9/10th handicap.

Holes 7-12 are played as Greensomes, on half combined handicaps, from the Ladies card and the last six holes are played as foursomes, off half the combined handicap, again off the Ladies card.

Ladies

THE Medal Trophy is open to all ladies who have won in medal competitions throughout the year, much like the Masters.

Players not in that category could play as a normal medal round.

The Trophy itself was won by Patricia Swindell with a net 67. Jackie Seager came second on 74 – with the same order for the Silver division normal medal competition. Bronze One was won by Lesley Farley with 74 and Cathy Uttley second with 77 on count-back from Liz Rogers.

Bronze Two winner was Rosemary Whitely with a net 80 followed by Linda McLaughlin with 81 on count-back from Sheila Palmer.

The nine-hole Stableford was won by Margaret Black with 13 points.

COUNTY ACTION

ON Thursday Honiton GC was the chosen venue for this year's SWCGA U14/U16 Championship.

With Honiton player Ben Phillips on the Devon team we had our own special interest.

The competition was for teams of nine players from Cornwall, Devon, Somerset, Dorset, Gloucestershire and Wiltshire.

The teams were made up of three players under 14 years old and six under 16 years old – all playing off the white tees.

It proved to be a good day for golf with sunny though blustery conditions for the 54 young men competing for a variety of trophies, and one team trophy.

The overall winner, with the lowest score over the 18 holes, and Champion of the SWCGA holding the Cotswold Ram Trophy with a score of 72, was James Cooper from Wiltshire.

The winner of the Ray Lawford Trophy with the lowest gross score of the under 14 group was James Reed of Devon with 75 and the winner of the Ian Clark Trophy for the lowest net score in the under 14s was Alex Johnston of Dorset with a score of 69 – the same as his club partner Samuel Trott.

The Inter Counties team Trophy was won by Wiltshire with Dorset second and Devon third.

Seniors

FOLLOWING a poor result at Axe Cliff the day before, where the seniors lost in their friendly match by 5½-½, there was a good turnout of 60 players last Friday for the annual Anniversary Salver competition – a better ball competition where teams are drawn pairs.

The resultant scores were unusually evenly-matched with seven pairs on 40 points, where the count-back rules had to come into consideration.

Not for David Hughes & Bill Phillips, who were the last players to complete their round and romped home with an impressive 45 points. Jim Wallis & Mike Watts were second with 42 ahead on count-back from Tony Williams & Peter Clarke.

Max Pipe & Colin Hughes claimed fourth place with 40 and David Morris & Bob Cockett were fifth with the same score.

There were four 2s; Peter Clarke, Bob Underwood and Max Pipe on the second with Mike Kent on the fourth – each winning 10 balls.

Eclectic

RUNNING through the winter the Seniors hold an Eclectic competition for the Ken Beake Shield.

Fifty players signed up to record their best score at each individual hole over the nine rounds possible this year.

This year Seniors' Captain Alan Pollock presented Peter Clarke with the Shield, his score of 59.5 proving unbeatable.

Next was Andy Sharland with 60.0, Alan Devenny with 60.5, Steve Blundell with 60.5, Mike Watts with 62.0 and Bill Eaton with 62.5.

Captains Charity

CAPTAIN Julian Phillips hosted his Charity Open Day at the club on Saturday, sponsored by Westerly BMW of Exeter.

Julian's charity for this year, the Devon Freewheelers will benefit when all the monies raised at the event which attracted a strong field of ladies and youths, as well as the long hitting brigade.

Grateful thanks go to the volunteers from the 'Freewheelers' who provided players with some much needed sustenance with a BBQ at the Half Way House.

A total of 128 Players participated with a good mix of both members and visiting players.

The runaway winners, with an incredible 50 points, were the pairing of Joan Smith and the very in-form Jason Lovering. They also collected the Mary Goddard Shield for the highest placed Honiton Pair.

CRICKET St THOMAS with Bert Robinson

FORTY two members of the Senior Section formed 14 teams to compete in the 'all to count' stableford competition on Wednesday.

Result: 1st Frank Martin, Bill Hilson & Barrie Heath (93 points). 2nd Mike King, Keith Potter & Sid Crisp (89), 3rd Richard Forster, Maurice Arnold & Vic Gane (86).

A field of 48 Seniors entered the draw for the three-man "Waltz" competition on Friday.

Result: 1st Mike King, Bernie Skeels & Alan Keenan 74 points, 2nd Jerry Stephens, Sid Forbes & Sid Crisp (72), 3rd Ron Sutherland, Mike Mosser & Gordon Bareham 72.

Also on Friday, the Senior match team entertained the Seniors from Weymouth.

A win, a half, and a loss in the first three games made for a close encounter, but three wins in the last three games by the Saints team gave them a fine victory by 41/2 games to 11/2.

Results: Nick Hill & Bob Hollingsworth won 2&1, Roger Stone & John McOmish halved, Chris Gingle & Robin Flower lost 4&3, Barrie Heath & Mike Dawson won 2&1, Keith Potter & Keith Branchflower won 3&1, Richard Forster & Bill Hilson won 3&1.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Mens section played their Haven Cup competition, format Pairs Texas Scramble. Medal and 1st place was won by Geoff Greenslade & Alex Palmer. In 2nd place were Richard Gibbons & Steve Anning.

Alan Morgan & Craig Trivett, Gavin Walker & Mike Chadwick, David Morgan & Alan Cooper, Richard Gibbons & Steve Anning plus, Paul Clode & Simon Sweetland all carded 25

The Ladies section played their June Medal competition in high winds and low temperatures last Wednesday but Helen Kenworthy defied the weather and scored a net 73 which, off a handicap of 7 was equal to a par round. Caroline Bond was not far behind with a net 75 and Margaret Kenchington finished with a net 77. Helen Gaudie also finished with a net 77.

The Seniors section scored a significant home win defeating Honiton Seniors by 5½-½.

Dixon lands notable double at Honiton FC

THERE was plenty to celebrate at the recent Honiton Town Football Club presentation evening.

'The Hippos' first team ran eventful Champions Topham Town and runners-up Newtown close before finishing in an excellent third position on their return to the Devon & Exeter League Premier Division.

The team recovered from a three game losing slump in September to put together a superb 15-game unbeaten run that stretched from early October through to Mid-April and resulted in them in being the league's joint top goal scorers with 83.

Midfielder Joe Dixon stole the headlines as he collected both the Manager's Player and Players' Player awards.

The Reserve team also did well finishing third in Division Four and must now await to see if this will be good enough to earn them a promotion spot.

The club's newly formed third team finished mid-table as they found their feet in the D & E Division Nine.

Award winners, third team: Top Scorer - Matt Ayres, Goal of the Season - Ryan Pike, Goal of the Season - Matt Ayres, Young Player - Ashley Munt, Most Improved - Cody Knight, Players' Player - Rowan Symonds, Manager's Player - Chris Williams.

Reserves: Top scorer - Blake Freemantle, Goal of the Season - Kris Roper, Young Player - Aaron Pearce, Most Improved - Matt Urquhart, Players' Player - Blake Freemantle, Manager's Player - Dom Carswell.

First team: Top scorer - Joe Mulhall, Goal of the Season - Tim Genders, Young Player - Rowan Symonds, Most Improved - Tom Perryman, Players' Player - Joe Dixon, Manager's Player - Joe Dixon, Club Crock of the Year - Jordan Stickland

The club wished to say a big 'Thank you' to sponsors Rich Ayres and Ben Welch from Jewsons, John Capon at Otter Windows, Richard Spiller from Red Homes and Aaron Baldry from AMB Roofing.

Elsewhere, AXMINSTER TOWN scooped the Division One (east) Ground of the Year award at last week's South-West Peninsula League presentation evening.

SIDMOUTH TOWN were runners-up. The Vikings did however finish top of the Division's Fair Play League and were awarded £300 for their efforts.
